Understanding Autism and Aspergers Syndrome

presented by Dr Richard Eisenmajer PhD

Dr Richard Eisenmajer: Clinical Psychologist

Richard is a Clinical Psychologist with a special interest in Autism Spectrum Disorders. He has over 10 years of experience working as a Psychologist in this field. Richard completed his PhD and published research into the Theory of Mind abilities of people with Autism and Aspergers Syndrome, and the diagnostic differentiation of subgroups across the Autistic Spectrum. Richard has experience in the Victorian public Mental Health Service and has worked on Autism Assessment Teams in Melbourne and Geelong.

Using anecdotes and case studies from his clinical practice, well known Melbourne psychologist, Dr Richard Eisenmajer PhD, explains the main features of Autism Spectrum Disorder. He provides insights into how people with an ASD experience the world around them and reasons why they either excel or struggle with everyday activities.
